

MAJOR COLLEGE FOOTBALL DIVISION

The BEST, NEXT & LAST Teams

The Perfect Playoff Plan is designed to decide an Undisputed National Champion on the field of play. This requires a new football only Major College Football Division (MCFD) with 10 Conferences that have Equal status, size and total strength of programs. The 10 Conference Champions and the 6 second place teams, with the most wins, will complete the 16 team National Championship Playoff. The 11 game Regular Season will have each team playing 4 home and 4 away conference games.

The 90 team Major College Football Division (MCFD) will be divided into 3 Groups based on each team's wins percentage in the last 8 Regular Seasons & their record over the 21 years since the BCS.

Group 1 will be the BEST 45 teams with the highest win percentage from the Power 5 Conferences plus Notre Dame. The group 1 teams will play a total of 6 home games each season.

Group 2 will be the NEXT 25 teams including the remaining 19 Power 5 teams after dropping Kansas plus Boise State, BYU, Central Florida, Cincinnati, NAVY and Northern Illinois.

Group 3 will be the LAST 20 teams that include the next 18 teams from the Group of Five with the most wins over the previous 8 years plus ARMY & Kansas.
